RETIRED COLLEAGUE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Any fully retired former member of a HARDI (and/or NHRAW or ARWI) member company with no present or future involvement in the operations or governance of any HVACR company or service provider to HVACR companies is eligible to make application for Retired Colleague Membership.

Completed applications shall be submitted to the HARDI offices. Upon approval of the application by the Board of Directors, the applicant shall become a member.

Benefits of the membership shall include access to the general HARDI information flow, social networking sites and other standard member services. Retired Colleague Members are entitled to a special dues rate and access to HARDI meetings and events at a reduced registration cost. Retired Colleague Members shall have no voting rights and shall not be eligible for election as an Officer or Director of HARDI.

Under Federal Law, contributions or gifts to HARDI are not tax deductible as charitable contributions. However, they may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses. Dues are deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses to the extent that they are not utilized for lobbying purposes. Under the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, HARDI must estimate the percent of dues which will be expended for lobbying and notify members of the amount of their non-deductible dues. For Fiscal Year 2018, we estimate this amount to be 5% of your dues.
